Alpha Psi Omega sponsored the production of two one-act plays in Eisenmayer Auditorium. THREE ON A BENCH, by Doris Estrada, is a humorous interlude in the life of a busybody who squeezes herself into the middle of a park bench between a quarreling young couple. By her clever manipulations, she brings them together so that young love triumphs. She hesitates, however, when the friendly policeman indicates that spring may arouse that same tender passion in the not-so-young.

Larry E. Baldwin

William Saroyan's HELLO OUT THERE is the call of one lonely soul reaching out to touch another lonely soul. The unknown drifter, jailed for rape, in the few minutes left before his death at the hands of the angry husband, strips away hypocrisy and arrogance to show truth and love in the inner recesses of the most humble.

The Campus Program Board sponsored a varied activities program ranging from a touch of the Broadway musical to jazz, folk, and soul music, to many timely speakers concerned with topics such as prison society, E. S. P., China, Woman's Lib, and Oriental philosophy and religion.

Pierre Salinger's visit in November brought to us an insight into the many duties and humorous incidents of a presidential Press Secretary's life. Going on to "Broadway", the musical "I Do! I Do!", we found ourselves touched with Jack and Sally Jenkin's delightful presentation of 50 years of marital "ups and downs". The warm, entertaining personality of British folk singer Peter Sayers will remain with us for years. The "Spurrlow" sound which filled the gym in February entertained a very enthusiastic "standing room only" crowd. Women's liberationist "Flo" Kennedy, along with China expert John McCook Roots and Zen Buddhist philosopher Alan Watts, had enlightened us greatly and had stimulated our thinking. The St. Louis Quartet concert was one to remember, with jazz at its finest and Jeanne Trevor's brilliant voice. Touching the year off with husband and wife, Bruce and Dixie Innes's delightful folk-rock tunes and Russ Burgess' surprising E. S. P. lecture-demonstration, it was a very good year...

The classic wit of Shaw as seen in ARMS AND THE MAN furnished a vehicle for laughter in the spring production of the drama department. The play is reminiscent of earlier melodrama, but modern in its effort to seek out the artificial and the pompous in the hither-to sacred ideals of romantic love, of glorified soldiers, and of fashionable aristocracy.

Alpha Phi Omega

Alpha Phi Omega

Alpha Phi Omega is one of the largest fraternities in our country today. There are over 500 chapters with a membership of over 150,000 men. A.P.O.'s main objectives are to promote leadership, provide friendships, and service to the community, school, and nation. Chi Omega, formally Alpha Kappa Tau, was founded in 1967 with the ideals of promoting leadership, friendship, and service to all intents and purposes for the Campus. The society is active in many service projects throughout the school year creating a unity of Brotherhood between members and benefiting the Campus and surrounding communities. In the spring of 1972, AKT became a charter member of the national service fraternity Alpha Phi Omega. The chapter name is Chi Omega and is the only national fraternity on the McKendree Campus.

Chi Omega chapter prides itself on providing service whenever needed and great unity between brothers.

The Clionian Literary Society has been an integal part of the McKendree campus for 103 years. Not only was Clio the first society for women, but the earliest president was the first woman to graduate from McKendree. Being a social and literary society, Clio has contributed to the library and worked with the various Fine Arts committees on our campus. Presently we have members affiliated in almost every campus activity. We have a strong bond of loyalty, many years of sisterhood, and are all quite proud to be Clionians.

Phi Lambda Sigma

The Philosophian Literary Society is the oldest Literary Society in Illinois. The members are Men united in fellowship for one particular goal. BROTHERHOOD. The Society gives much stress to academics. The Society believes that an enjoyable college life should be centered around academics, because this is the most important reason for being in a college situation.

During the fall term, Philo has its annual speech contest, cash prizes are given. Work weekends are set up to raise money for society functions.

In the spring, Philos has its annual formal dance.

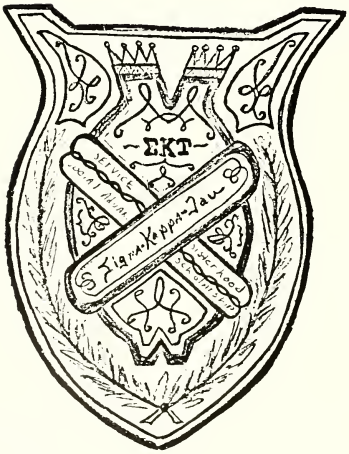
Sigma Kappa Tau



Sigma Kappa Tau was founded in 1967. At that time it adopted sisterhood, scholarship, service, and social advancement of McKendree College and the Lebanon community as its purpose. Throughout this academic year, Sigma has become in many service projects both for the benefit of McKendree and the area. Sigma has also participated in Women's Intermurals in the sports of softball, volleyball, and basketball. Every spring, Sigma holds its annual Daisy banquet for its members and their honored guests.

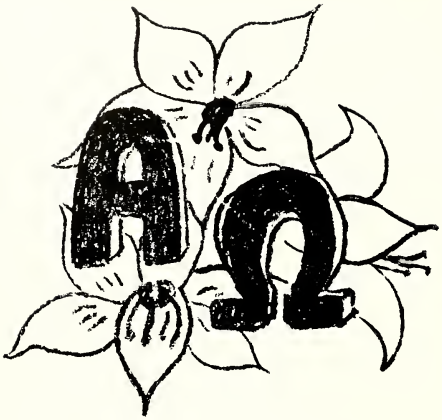
This society was founded in 1849 to promote social events on McKendree's campus. As such, Plato is the oldest social society in the United States west of the Allegheny Mts., but Plato is a social society with a purpose, the promotion of Brotherhood amoung our members. With the installation of Brotherhood, the qualities of Leadership, Scholarship, and Courage command the respect of all other societies on America's College Campuses.



Alpha Omega Society was installed on the campus of McKendree College on November 23, 1954. Previous to that time, there was one other women's society on the campus. There were 16 charters at that time. These members all graduated and the charter of Alpha Omega lapsed to be renewed again in November, 1970. The present society consists of 24 members.

Believing that a social society is the unification of persons for the common purpose of promoting fellowship, friendly and beneficial communication between individuals, and groups, and that a social program is a vital need in the life of every college student.

The purpose of Alpha Omega shall be to establish a perpetual bond of friendship among its members, to develop a stronger and more womanly character, to broaden the social, cultural, and intellectual life, and to assit its members in every possible way.

Phi Rho Chi

Phi Rho Chi, with 17 active brothers, has been busy throughout the year. The first semester saw the Alumni of Ferox return for the annual football game. With a large turnout, a good time was had by the Green Machine.

Weekends for Ferox have been taken by service projects, work days, and a few parties. A service project of collecting for the U.S.O., also was carried out. In the spring the annual Steak Fry will be held.

After an undefeated football season, the fraternity looked forward to another strong intramural year, with hopes of making it successive three year victory for the All-Sports trophy.

Delta Phi Sigma

Delta Phi Sigma, a social fraternity, strives to promote those qualities which are essential for a well-balanced scholastic program. Brotherhood, Individuality, Sportsmanship, Integrity, and an active participation in student affairs are just a few of the qualities created through membership in the organization.

Adelphi, realizes that a college life consisting solely of academic routines fails to complete an individual's total education. Therefore, the organization with college life. This is achieved through such activities as intramural programs, parties, and succulent pig roasts.

Whole in the midst, turpin airs,
the fumes aroused, amidst, the sounds and colors of the day.

Walking on the hands that feel the times and speak in subtle mime.
Across the words that echo, within the presence of concern.
Someone just as he, without intruding upon himself to be, only ever learning to see.

The McKENDREAN Staff has attempted to put in pictorial form some of the memories of the past year. Thought we may not have captured every moment that was important to each individual, we hope that we have caught a few of them; thus, giving a look at a portion of McKendree. To the Seniors, we extend our congradulations, and best wishes. To those of you who remain, we wish you the best that McKendree offers.

Now that you're an adult—

you'll need your own checking account

Calling all students: Come in today. Ask for our "Student Accounts Advisor." We'll show you how to use your own checkbook to control your money and to keep a record of it. Remember, when you have your own checking and savings accounts, money seems to go a lot farther! Isn't that what you want?

Cindy Naumann is a Sophomore at McKendree College. Cindy opened her first checking account at First National Bank. Come in and open your account too.
